PRESS RELEASE

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Liane Louie-Badua
liane@cacampuscompact.org
510-885-7620
www.cacampuscompact.org

California Campus Compact Executive Board Welcomes Two New Members

Whittier College President Linda Oubré, and Berkeley City College President Rowena Tomaneng join the 2019-2020 California Campus Compact Executive Board.

June 14, 2019

Hayward, CA – Two nationally-recognized university and college presidents committed to fulfilling the civic purposes of higher education have been named to the Executive Board of California Campus Compact — a coalition of leading college and universities representing thousands of students throughout California.

California Campus Compact announced today that its Executive Board has selected two new members: President Linda Oubré (of Whittier College) and President Rowena Tomaneng (of Berkeley City College). They will be serving three-year terms, beginning July 1, 2019.

California Campus Compact (CACC) Executive Director Dr. Elaine K. Ikeda said, "I am absolutely thrilled to have these accomplished and dedicated leaders join our board! In California Campus Compact's 30th anniversary year, our organization's mission is more important than ever. Presidents Oubré and Tomaneng will join a committed Executive Board who demonstrates leadership in championing the role that higher education can and should play in educating and preparing students for active participation in our democracy. We are excited to have them join our outstanding board of college leaders."

"I have known and worked with Linda Oubré and Rowena Tomaneng for many years. I respect their leadership and know they will approach their new roles on the Board with tremendous energy and commitment," said California Campus Compact Executive Board Chair and California State University, East Bay President Leroy Morishita. "On behalf of my colleagues, I am pleased to welcome Linda and Rowena to the Board. We all look forward to working with them in the years ahead."

Returning members of the 2019-2020 California Campus Compact Executive Board include:

- Leroy M. Morishita, President, California State University, East Bay
- William Covino, California State University, Los Angeles
- James Donahue, President, St. Mary's College of California
- James T. Harris, President, University of San Diego
- Mary Papazian, President, San Jose State University

The California Campus Compact Executive Board has the responsibility to support and promote the mission of California Campus Compact throughout the state and nation, recommend programs, plans and budgets that sustain and promote the vision and mission of the organization, and exercise oversight and stewardship of the resources of California Campus Compact.

About California Campus Compact

California Campus Compact is a coalition of leading colleges and universities that works to build the collective commitment and capacity of colleges, universities and communities throughout California to advance civic and community engagement for a healthy, just and democratic society. Through innovative programs and initiatives, grant funding, training and technical assistance, professional development and powerful research studies and publications, California Campus Compact each year invests in and champions hundreds of thousands of students, faculty members, administrators and community members involved in diverse and ground-breaking activities that support and expand civic and community engagement throughout California. For more information, please visit www.cacampuscompact.org.

######